Bio

Dana Neighbors has been serving the health insurance and financial benefit needs of regional businesses for over 21 years. As a lifelong insurance professional, Neighbors has specialized knowledge which is difficult to find in today's marketplace. She currently serves as Vice President of Employee Benefits at Premier, specializing in helping provide creative solutions for employers.

After graduating from Texas A&M, Neighbors began her career in 1998 with a brokerage firm located in Oklahoma. Upon meeting Russell Brown, Founder and CEO, and Cary Taylor who oversees the Risk Management division she was persuaded to join the newly founded firm. Neighbors has been an integral part of the Premier team, helping grow the benefits and group health insurance division. Her extensive knowledge and expertise have helped navigate the intricacies of complying with ACA and effectively managing employee benefit costs.

In her spare time, she enjoys spending time with her family and working towards helping Cookie, Premier's office dog, getting certified as a therapy dog.
