Bio

Jenn Gwartney serves as Premier's Operational Accountant. Jenn oversees the monthly close process, account currents, revenue recording, handles all reconciliations, and facilitates all commission reporting.

Jenn has 10 years' experience in the financial services industry, starting as a support specialist in the employee benefits field, working through assignments with increasing responsibility. With Jenn's years of experience, she has become the internal control for our agency management systems. Gwartney has been with Premier since 2013 and has been an integral member of the leadership team, helping advance Premier's 360° service model and customer service platform.

A competitive rider in her spare time, she enjoys sitting on the board as the scholarship chair for the Oklahoma Hunter Jumper Association.
