

Kent Williams

Chief HR Strategist

kwilliams@premier-cp.com

Bio

Kent Williams brings over four decades of experience in human resources to the Premier leadership team. His passion for the people side of the business is centered on two key principles; culture and connecting employees to the organization's mission, vision and values. Before joining the Premier team, Kent spent time in corporate America in every facet of Human Resources from staffing to strategic planning and extensive HR consulting with a diverse mix of clients which is his main focus with Premier.

Kent's ability to strengthen the link between people and process, as well as manage and retain talent, makes him a key player at Premier as we continue to help our clients develop their administrative infrastructure needed to support long-term success.

In his spare time, Kent enjoys spending time with his wife of 37 years, two daughters and grandchildren. A self-proclaimed music aficionado, Kent enjoys singing with his church choir and traveling to see his favorite musicians in concerts whenever he can.