Bio

Tim Ellsworth is managing partner for Premier Wealth Management, a subsidiary of Premier Consulting Partners. In his current role, Ellsworth is responsible for all the company's wealth management business lines in all markets, including Institutional Wealth, Small Business, and Individuals. In addition to his role as managing partner, he serves on the leadership team at Premier. In his 33 years of experience, Ellsworth holds numerous FINRA securities licenses, registrations, and designations, such as Accredited Investment Fiduciary.

Prior to joining Premier, Tim began his career as a junior advisor at a boutique investment firm. Later co-founding his own firm where he spent 16 years developing a goal-based financial planning model Premier uses today. After meeting and working alongside Russell Brown, Ellsworth joined forces with Premier Consulting Partners to help establish and grow the 360° solution model the firm is known for today.

A graduate of Oklahoma State University, Ellsworth enjoys spending time with his wife, 3 children, and 5 grandchildren. He volunteers his time to many local organizations and currently serves on the Community Board of Tulsa Country Club, Chair of the endowment committee at Christ the King, Investment committee at Catholic charities, and Robertson Bike Club for underprivileged kids.
